

Encourage Your Kids

A little positive reinforcement goes a long way to improve a child's behavior and build confidence. Use these words and phrases to let your kids know you're proud of them.

- You're on the right track now!
- You're doing a good job.
- You did a lot of work.
- That's right!
- Now you have the hang of it.
- That's coming along nicely.
- That's great!
- Fantastic!
- Terrific!
- Tremendous!
- Excellent!
- Wow!

See back for more words of encouragement.

Akron Children's Hospital

Here are some additional positive words and phrases to share with your children:

- Excellent!
- Wow!
- Super!
- Impressive!
- Wonderful!
- Perfect!
- Outstanding!
- Congratulations!
- That's better.
- You outdid yourself.
- Keep it up.
- That's really nice.
- Good for you.
- You're exactly right.
- You make it look easy.
- Way to go!
- You're getting better every day.
- I knew you could do it.
- You're working really hard.
- Good thinking.
- You're very good at that.
- I'm proud of you.
- You just about have it.
- That's good.
- You're really improving.
- Good work.
- I like that.
- Good memory.
- You did that very well.
- You must have been practicing.

Visit akronchildrens.org for more parenting tips and children's health resources.

